

One Click Ventures Expands Office Space to Reflect Company Growth

New property acquisition offers increased capabilities for One Click Ventures' team growth and online retail properties.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND. (June 1, 2010): One Click Ventures, a network of e-commerce domains, announced its acquisition of new office space this year. This change in location reflects One Click's substantial business and team growth over the last two years, including a 200% increase in human capital. At the start of 2008, the company included just nine full and part-time employees, compared to the 33 team members at present.

The expanded office has created more meeting, training, and work space for its employees. The 12,000 square-foot area also includes a larger warehouse to accommodate the influx of products from One Click's new additions to their retail network.

"It's crucial to embrace and match our business development from an environmental standpoint," said Josh Owens, Director of Business Development, "In expanding our customer base, we expand our business needs, so we had to adapt and add space."
